

Keep the DO-NOT CALL LIST.

It has been great not to be bothered with those annoying telemarketers trying to sell me something I don't have the need for. If I want something I will pursue it my self. I don't need some one to call me to make up my mind that I need something.